

Official Adoption Agreement

for the Direct Support of

Pat Monroe Missionary to the Deaf

Project # 41300-19

DO YOU KNOW---that 98% of all deaf people in the United States do not know Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior? How can they know if they have not heard?

Pat Monroe serves Iowa District West in ministry with the deaf, along with Rev. Dennis Konkel and lay deacon Patrick Sell. Pat, a certified and licensed sign language interpreter, also has a degree in Lutheran theology. What an asset!

Though based in Council Bluffs, we can find her anywhere in the District; with Des Moines being her second home.

Pat coordinates District activities and children's ministries. She trains up church interpreters, works with the deaf choir, the LWML, involved in lay leadership training, Spiritual Care One-on-One, home and institutional visitations and assists Rev. Konkel as needed. Often you hear her before you see her, as she often is voicing for Rev. Konkel when he presents to hearing audiences.

She currently is assisting the DIT program (Deaf Institute of Theology distance program with Concordia Seminary-St. Louis), in writing and videotaping student materials; as well as doing video interpreting for Main Street Living's worship services that air on cable and the internet.

God has blessed the Iowa District West deaf and hard of hearing with a strong thirst for growing in faith and living out their faith in service. Please keep the deaf and hard of hearing in your prayers; that they may continue to have opportunities to worship and grow closer in their relationship with Jesus as Lord and Savior.

Prayerfully consider financial support to help Pat continue to share God's Word of love and forgiveness through sign language.
